By leveraging our brand strength and operational excellence, we aspire to accelerate our growth goal, and establish a global hotel network during the next five years."

In order to accomplish those aspirations, we need to achieve the following:

3. We will continue to invest in our people and our organizational capabilities. We will build a productive, highly-motivated and highly-empowered organization with one consistent company culture to support this growth. Our devoted and professional associates are the core of our business success. We will further improve our training, coaching and career development, thus realizing the full potential of every dedicated employee.
4. We will continue our international expansion plan, building on the recent acquisition of Deutsche Hospitality as well as new hotels opened and under development in Singapore and Japan.

The success of the above actions will require expanded capacity from Huazhu's senior leadership.
